

FIND GREAT PEOPLET TO BUILD GREAT COMPANIES

One company.

Many solutions.

One Company. Many Solutions.

A great company is built on the people it hires. Find Great People is here to help you find and develop a workforce that makes a difference. And stays with you. Building great companies is not easy and we are committed to creating relationships that go beyond a specific HR project or search assignment.

Across all our services, our brand promise remains the same:

We exist to build great companies and help you get the most out of your greatest asset — your people.

We have one purpose: to build great companies.

In 1982, we started out as an Executive Search firm in the textile and apparel industry. As the needs of our clients grew, we responded by expanding our search practice areas and added services to include Technology Recruiting, Temporary Talent and HR Consulting. Today, we are still growing and thriving, with more ways to support your success than ever before.

The driver of our success is our people.

It takes great people to find great people. Each person on our team, regardless of title or position, is crucial to fulfilling our brand promise. We're not just a team. We are a family and have built a culture that is contagious.

"Find" is an action word.

Great people are critical in building a great company.

Whether you need a Temporary Receptionist, a Java Programmer or a new CEO, our Direct Hire Search, Technology Recruiting and Temporary Talent staffing teams find those great people who will truly fit with your culture.

We perform searches customized to your needs. Our hiring models include temporary, temp-to-hire and direct hire placements. In addition, our direct hire searches may be performed on a contingent or retained basis.

Talent is what we do —

because you must get the "who" right first.
